

HIKING SCHEDULE 2021

DATE	DISTANCE	VENUE	Time	Notes
Sun, 17 Jan	7.8 km	Africaland	07:00	Africaland is lesser-known hiking spot around Johannesburg. Easing us into the start of our hiking program, Africaland offers trails that wind around the natural landscapes of the Pelindaba Wilderness. Along the way, you'll see the skyline of Sandton in the distance and wander past the Magaliesberg mountain range. If you're lucky, you might catch a glimpse of Impala, Kudu, Nyala, Eland and Duiker!
Sat, 30 Jan	12.5 km	De Wildt Adventure Trails	07:00	Imagine a space where you can become one with nature and take in the beautiful surrounds of the majestic Magaliesberg Mountains just the place to recharge your soul. De Wildt Adventure Trails are situated approximately 30 minutes from Pretoria and 45 minutes from Johannesburg close to Hartbeespoort. Let's attempt the more challenging Peglerea Trail with magnificent views of the surrounding areas.
Sun, 7 Feb	7 km	B'sorah Trails	07:00	B'sorah has dedicated trails for hiking, trail running and mountain biking, open to day-visitors on Sundays to Fridays. Their trails give you access to some of the most scenic and pristine parts of the farm, which includes plenty of diversity. Rivers, forests, grassland, bushveld and rocky outcrops can all be enjoyed at B'sorah whilst hiking or running, and for mountain bikers, they have exciting yet challenging trails which will test your skills and provide plenty of excitement.
Sat, 20 Feb	16.7 km	Dome Pools	07:00	Dome Pools is a wilderness hiking venue, involving an easy walk over a hill and along a stream to some of the biggest and deepest rock pools in the Magaliesberg, making it a fantastic venue for swimming in the summer months.

Sat, 13 Mar	Quagga's Pad Overnight Hike	Trail 1: (day one): This trail is +- 13,5 km and takes hikers through the Suikerbos rand koppies, small indigenous bushy areas, kloofs, Tswana kraal ruins, historical Anglo Boer war sites, "kordeel" ruins. A suggested tea break is under a huge White Stinkwood tree. From here the trail goes up to the highest point in this area where you have a 360° view of this area: the Vaal dam and different towns can be seen. (on a very clear day, one can even see the Drakensberg and Maluti berg mountains and even the Tafelkop near Vrede). A well deserved lunch break can be enjoyed at a big farm dam. The last 5km takes hikers through koppies, past an old "wind pomp"(water available) pass small spruitjies and high veld grass veld back to camp.
Sun, 14 Mar		Trail 2: (Day two): This trails is +- 7km and takes hikers through a game fenced area with 8 species of game such as zebra, hartebeest, blesbok, reedbuck, gemsbok, eland etc. A suggested tea time/brunch break spot is also in side this camp where hikers can sit and enjoy the view and all the game. The last part of this trail goes over Adoons koppie, Whisky Koppie, past a small spruit and back to camp.

Q1 / Hectic amount of public holidays coming up / Easter Break
